

OBJECTS TO PLAN TO ABANDON NAVY YARD IN BROOKLYN

Rear Admiral Leutze Opposes
Scheme to Use Property for Ocean Liner Piers.

But Points Out That Plans
Have Just Been Approved for Important Changes.

Rear-Admiral E. H. C. Leutze, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, in an interview with an Evening World reporter to-day expressed opposition to the reported plan to abandon the Brooklyn station. The report of the contemplated change grew out of the announcement last evening that Mayor Gaynor during his visit in Washington would discuss with Navy Department officials the advisability of turning the property over to the city to be used for piers for the great ocean liners.

"There is no doubt that New York needs more pier space and will continue to need more space," said the Rear-Admiral. "I have no slightest doubt that the expansion will bring more piers to the Brooklyn side, but as for the abandonment of the Navy Yard I have not received the slightest intimation from Washington. In fact, such a plan does not seem feasible."

Admiral Leutze pointed out that the most costly improvements that are contemplated at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, have been the last two days for the construction of two big piers that will cost about $125,000, and will be used as piers for four dreadnoughts.

These two piers, work on which will begin shortly, will extend northward from Clinton avenue into the basin toward the Cob dock, an island at which the training ship Hancock is moored. Plans for new piers contemplate decreasing the size of the Cob dock by almost one-third.

Rear Admiral Leutze said there had been no let up in the construction work or repair work. The keel of the new dreadnought, New York, has been laid and it will be a year before the battleship will be launched and another year before she can be put into commission. She will be a 27,000 ton ship and a sister to the Texas, under construction at Newport.

Mayor Gaynor and Dock Commissioner Tompkins went to Washington yesterday afternoon from the Brooklyn Navy Yard to discuss the plan that the Government contemplates doing away with the navy yard, and that the city has a plan to make use of the property. Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Meyer, has advocated fewer navy yards on the ground that concentration would serve the Government better.

Mayor Gaynor, Dock Commissioner Tompkins will have an interview with Secretary Meyer before their return to New York. The Secretary has announced that he would be glad to confer with the city's representatives. By Monday there will be nine battleships and many smaller vessels of the navy in the Brooklyn yard, including the Delaware, South Carolina and Michigan have been there for some time, and the Connecticut and Vermont came in to-day. The New Hampshire, North Dakota, Alabama and Louisiana are on the way. The ships are coming to the Navy Yard for the Christmas holidays.

GIRL MISSING 6 WEEKS; DISAPPEARED AFTER TWO WEEKS HERE.

The police of the East Eighty-eighth street police station are searching for Ethel Hartman, twenty-one years old, who has been missing for six weeks from the home of her sister, Mrs. Bernard Klein, at No. 26 East Eighty-fifth street.

When Miss Hartman disappeared she had been only two weeks in the country, having been brought over by her sister from a province in Hungary. Mrs. Klein permitted the girl to go out unaccompanied one afternoon on her plea that she was well able to take care of herself and could find her way about. Since then no trace has been found of her, though a very systematic search has been carried on.

Mrs. Klein has worried herself ill over her sister's disappearance and is in a serious condition. The girl had practically no knowledge of English.

A Bird-Woman's Eye View.
(From the Youngtown Telegram.)
The aviator's wife was taking her first trip with her husband in his airship.

"Wait a minute, George," she said. "I'm afraid we will have to go down again."

"What's wrong?" asked the husband.

"I believe I have dropped one of the pearl buttons off my jacket. I think I can see it listening on the ground."

"Keep your coat, my dear," said the aviator. "That's Lake Erie."

She Was Cured of Tuberculosis

Cured After Three Doctors
Had Given
Her Up.

"After being given up by three doctors I was advised by one of the physicians of St. Mary's Hospital to consult Dr. Anderson, whose many successful cures of Tuberculosis and all other

Throat and Lung Troubles are known to all. "I had a dreadful cough, hemorrhage, pain in chest and shoulders, chills, fever and night sweats, lost flesh, strength and appetite, and had all the other deadly symptoms of tuberculosis of the lungs."

"Finally I applied to Dr. Anderson, and his X-ray examination of my chest showed that the right lung was seriously affected and had a cavity in the upper part of it. "After a three months' course of his treatment, including the use of the breathing of his Inhalation, together with applications of Dr. Anderson's Vibratory Treatment, I was cured, absolutely, and within three months' time, I was able to resume my usual life."

"I began to improve from the very first treatment, and am now permanently cured and entirely relieved from all terrible symptoms. I shall always be exceedingly grateful to Dr. Anderson, who located and correctly diagnosed my disease and cured me of tuberculosis of the lungs, and I feel that I owe it to all sufferers of lung or throat trouble to tell them of my cure."
